House, Committee Favor Measure

ADULTSITY — The Maine House today affirmed its action Tuesday on a bill to open the state liquor market on Sunday.

By a 13 majority of the legislature, however, did not indicate a clear path for the measure, because of opposition from the Senate.

Opposition forces, weakened by amendments, held off the measure by a 12 majority on Tuesday.

In a vote Wednesday, Gov. Bennett said he would veto the measure unless it was amended to allow for a similar measure in 1967 but called for local option.

House and Senate both today announced they would hold off on the measure until after the summer recess.
