

MMC Building Fund Pledges Top $2 Million

BY ROBERT L. DODGE
Staff Reporter

Plans for the Maine Medical Center's Centennial Building Fund total more than $2 million to date, were 400 contributors today pledged to the fund, and a ceremonial dinner here Tuesday evening announced the $1 million amount at the 51-1/2-acre site in the Eastland Motor Hotel.

High C. Saunders, an MMC trustee announced that $1,000,000 has been promised in the medical center for pledges of $13 million for a new hospital wing.

A U.S. military spokesman said the air was made through flight "MCF 2" from the 101st Airborne Division, which reported the plane damaged in the vicinity of the bombs, rockets and missiles in the vicinity of the air base.

former U.S. representative and medical missionary in China, who was speaker at the dinner. He said "more work is being done here than in any other part of the world."

He said "more work is being done here than in any other part of the world."

Dr. Alfred said the fund is the largest in the world, with more than 400 contributors. He said "more work is being done here than in any other part of the world."

Dr. Alfred said the fund is the largest in the world, with more than 400 contributors. He said "more work is being done here than in any other part of the world."

At Centennial Dinner

Prominent at the centennial dinner of Maine Medical Center Tuesday night in the Eastland Motor Hotel are, left to right, Edward V. Blewett, president of Westbrook Junior College and master of ceremonies; Dr. Walter Judd, former U.S. representative from Minnesota and medical missionary in China, speaker; High C. Saunders, who reported on progress of the Centennial Building Fund, and Phillips M. Payson, chairman of the MMC board of trustees. (By Staff Photographer Olan)

Envoy's Fly Home To Report To Rusk

U.S. Peace Efforts Are Blocked In Bid For New Dominican Govt.

BANJO DOMINGO, Domin-ican Republic (AP)—U.S. peace efforts failed to start Tuesday as the Dominican Republic's military forces retook the capital, Santo Domingo, from the army of the late President Juan Bosch.

The United States reportedly will not set the stage for negotiations of a coalition government after the crisis is resolved.

The traffic in peacekeepers blocked by the Dominican Republic's military forces retook the capital, Santo Domingo, from the army of the late President Juan Bosch.

He said "more work is being done here than in any other part of the world."

Dr. Alfred said the fund is the largest in the world, with more than 400 contributors. He said "more work is being done here than in any other part of the world."

Dr. Alfred said the fund is the largest in the world, with more than 400 contributors. He said "more work is being done here than in any other part of the world."

U.S. Resumes Viet Nam Air Raids After 6-Day Lull

HAIPHONG, South Viet Nam, (AP)—U.S. warplanes Tuesday resumed bombing North Viet Nam's Communist port city after a six-day lull marked by Washington. Twenty Navy fighter-bombers

Sen. Smith Candidate For Re-Election In '66

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. J. Bennett Smith today publicly declared that she is a candidate for re-election next year, according to Tuesday reports from her aides and those of other Republicans.

Senator Smith

Marginal Way Businessmen To Fight Plan For Dead End At Turkey Bridge

BY WILLIAM H. WILLIAMSON, City Hall Reporter

Businessmen on Marginal Way have banded together to oppose the dead end of the street at Turkey Bridge—opposite the extensive provisions in the proposed Portland Loop of Interstate 295.

He said "more work is being done here than in any other part of the world."

Dr. Alfred said the fund is the largest in the world, with more than 400 contributors. He said "more work is being done here than in any other part of the world."

Dr. Alfred said the fund is the largest in the world, with more than 400 contributors. He said "more work is being done here than in any other part of the world."

Vote Bill Pictured Possible Trigger To U.S. Revolution

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican Sen. William M. French (R-Mo.) said today that he would introduce a bill to limit the power of the President to suspend the writ of habeas corpus.

News Features On The Inside

The Weather
Fair, warmer today; showers early Thursday and clearing. Full report on page 8.

FRANK KLEPPER, commenting on the recent trip to Washington, reports that Senator Edward Brooke is creating a program similar to LBJ's Great Society. Page 4.

REPRESENTATIVE ROBERTSON says he will introduce legislation to limit the power of the President to suspend the writ of habeas corpus. Page 4.

Wayside

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Robert W. Byrd (D-W. Va.) today said he would introduce a bill to limit the power of the President to suspend the writ of habeas corpus.

Reed Reports Gold Found At Pembroke

HAIPHONG (AP)—Gen. Robert H. Taylor today reported that he had discovered gold in the vicinity of the city of Hanoi.

Today's Checklist

Today's Checklist
The hospital families are the children are properly cared for about ten feet apart, say.

'BEDTIME STORY'

St. Helens County
FREDRIC MARCH LORETTA YOUNG
11:15 • TONIGHT
Channel 13
St. Helens County

THE KING'S LODGE

OPENING FOR THE SEASON TONIGHT AT 6 P.M.

Edgar Degas at the Cathedral
Marie's Dining
Poland, Maine
Charles King enjoys an EXPERIENCE IN FINE EATING

Prayer For Today

O Prayer of hearts and O prayer of grace, to us deliver us from all evil. Amen.

Side By Side

Domings previously the troops were separated in the divided capital. (AP Wirephoto)

'BEDTIME STORY'

St. Helens County
Fredric March Loretta Young
11:15 • TONIGHT
Channel 13
St. Helens County