Portland Press Herald

VOL. 102-NO. 160

PORTLAND, MAINE, SATURDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 25, 1965

All Is Quiet Along War Fronts In Viet Nam

Dolls East And West

Dressed alike are Christina Miklos, months, and a doll her father sent ir from Viet Nam. Spec. 5 James M. Ricks, who's stationed with the my's 330th Transportation Co. at ang Tau, had this and one other outfit made for his daughter for Christmas, Christina and her mother, Mrk. Angela Miklos, live at 10 Hillis St. Miklos has been in Southeast Asia

Little Town Of Bethlehem Hails Feast Of Nativity

Rockland Area A-Power Plant Plan Unveiled

Wishing You All A Very Merry Christmas Channel 13

LBJ, On Ranch, Keeps Vigil Over Viet Truce

4 More Persons Die In Highway Mishaps

Highway Fatalities

All Wrapped Up

Mrs. Persis Kirk, who heads up Knox County Well Doers Christ-

articles - $18,000 worth

Thank You--One and All who contributed so generously

Bruce Roberts Santa Claus Fund

thereby brightening the Christmas Holiday Season for hundreds of deserving children

French Crew Lands Safely

Capt. Roland Terrier, second Richard, Bernard J. Lewis, right, discusses the Atlantic crossing berland Cold Storage, and E with, from left, Chief Engineer Jean tian, the ship's cook.

French Dragger Reaches Local Port Foodless, Skippered By Brave Captain

Maine AAA Head Is 'Unimpressed' By Reed's War On Traffic Fatalities

Today's Chuckle

News, Features On The Inside

BUS FILLED with the